

Bob Zwald

ERG

 Get In Touch

Mr. Zwald is Executive Vice President and Senior Scientist at Environmental Resources Group, LLC, and is responsible for management, oversight and technical support for environmental projects. He has a B.S. in Geology from Western Michigan University. Mr. Zwald has over 25 years of environmental consulting experience in Michigan and many other states. He has performed management, technical guidance and regulatory relations for over 500 projects. He has been involved in overseeing subsurface investigations and remediation and has also directed large-scale remediation activities. He has performed numerous Phase I ESAs, has performed and directed Phase II ESAs and Baseline Environmental Assessments, and has managed Brownfield Redevelopment projects under P.A. 381 of Michigan. Mr. Zwald's clientele has included major oil companies, universities, state agencies, small and large banks, developers, attorneys, auto manufacturers and suppliers, and other industrial clients.